Baixa (Downtown) Walking Tour

Join us for a walk through Maputo’s historical downtown district. The Baixa is where Maputo’s colonial history began and this tour takes you to the very heart of Maputo. Stops along your walk include the Railway Station, Fortress, Central Market and Independence Square. You will also pass by the City Hall, Cathedral, Botanical Gardens and Steel House.

Notes:
» Includes a stop for coffee with a ‘pastel de nata’ (custard tartlet).
» Morning & afternoon half-day tours.
» Guide speaks English and Portuguese.

Kruger Park Day Trip

The world-renowned Big 5 Kruger National Park is only 100km from Maputo and your driver will assist you with border formalities. As you slowly drive through the park you may see elephant, buffalo, giraffe, impala, zebra and, for those lucky enough, lion or rhino. Lunch will be enjoyed at one of the park’s camps and you will continue to look for game on the return journey from Kruger. Some nationalities will need to buy a re-entry visa for Mozambique.

Notes:
» Includes park fees, game drive in an open safari vehicle with professional driver/guide, bottled water, light lunch and return transfers from Maputo.
» Departure is at dawn and return to Maputo early evening.
» Pack a hat and warm jacket.
» No children under 8 years old. Contact us for an alternative closed vehicle option.
» Contact us for information regarding overnight trips.
» Tip: Please ensure you have all the necessary documentation (visas and passport) pertaining to entering South Africa and re-entry into Mozambique.
» All minors need an Unabridged Birth Certificate (UBC) before crossing borders.
Macaneta Day Trip

Macaneta Peninsula is located 30km north of Maputo and the trip takes you via Costa do Sol on the new highway. After crossing the Incomati River by bridge or local ferry at Marracuene and be transferred to a nearby beach lodge by 4x4. Spend your day at the beach or relaxing at the lodge. Dip your toes one last time in the Indian Ocean before returning to Maputo.

Notes:
- Includes a seafood lunch at the Lodge
- Departure is around 08:30 and return to Maputo late afternoon
- Pack sunscreen, hat and beach towel
- There is a strong backwash at Macaneta. Take extreme care when bathing and stay close to the shore. Swimming is at your own risk.

Santa Maria, Inhaca Island & Portuguese Island

Inhaca Island is located across Maputo Bay, about 30km east of the city. The boat departs from Maputo Marina (Escola Nautica) to Santa Maria in the morning. Duration of the trip is between 60-90 minutes by speed boat. On arrival at Santa Maria, those who would like to snorkel can do so. A limited supply of snorkel masks is available. En-route to Inhaca Island, where you will enjoy a seafood lunch, there is an optional stop at the Marine Biology Museum where you can learn more about the local biodiversity. After lunch you can visit Portuguese Island for a swim before returning to Maputo. The islands are about 15 minutes apart from each other by boat. The return to Maputo may take slightly longer due to choppy seas and timing is tide-dependent.

Notes:
- Includes seafood lunch, marine park fee and Escola Nautica departure fee.
- Excludes transfers to the Maputo harbour.
- This tour is not guided. (Optional Extra: $140 per guide)
- Pack a hat, suntan lotion and a jumper as the trip back can be windy.
- Tip: Please note that you will be required to wade through water on disembarkation so please ensure you wear plastic sandals and shorts.
- Itinerary is subject to alteration due to weather conditions.
