To Whom It May Concern,

I have had the pleasure of working with Natalie Tenzer-Silva and her team at Dana Tours for the African Organisation for Research and Training in Cancer (AORTIC)'s 12th International Conference on Cancer in Africa which took place from 5 to 8 November 2019 at the Joaquim Chissano International Conference Centre in Maputo, Mozambique.

We partnered with Dana Tours, one of Mozambique's leading Destination Managers with incomparable local knowledge, to manage the accommodation, transport, and touring needs of conference participants. They also assisted with procuring collateral and services for the conference.

Dana Tours secured competitively priced accommodation for delegates at the Official Hotels of the conference and managed all accommodation bookings directly with delegates. They also offered airport transfers which were booked directly by delegates as well as a complimentary daily shuttle which was offered between the Official hotels and the JCICC. The transport for the Gala Dinner which was held at the Serena Polana hotel was also managed by the team.

The accompanying persons package for the conference included two half day city tours: City Tour of Maputo (09:30 – 12:30, Wednesday, 6 November 2019) and Mafalala Walking Tour (09:30 – 12:30, Thursday, 7 November 2019). Natalie and her team ran these tours for the accompanying persons and also offered additional day tours and longer pre- and post-conference tours which were for the delegates own account.

Dana Tours also assisted with various elements of procurement such as the delegate bags and lanyards which were regionally produced with an emphasis on job creation; sourcing English/Portuguese speaking staff with a portion of the team also French speaking; managing the production and installation of banners and branding.

Finally, Natalie proved invaluable in all manner of logistical arrangements within the JCICC and she also assisted with the identification of suitable venues and the development of the concept and implementation, including the sourcing of suitable qualified service providers, entertainment, décor, theming and staffing, of the conference social events.

Natalie and Dana Tours was a fabulous resource both in preparation for the event and on site and I look forward to working with them again when we are next in Mozambique.

We wish Dana Tours all the best and should you require any further details please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours sincerely,

Keith Burton
